Any children who are old enough to make their first confession and Holy communion this year would their parents speak with Father Higgins to obtain and complete an application form first. The first session is planned to start on Sunday 17th February in church from 10 am.

It is with deep sadness to announce the death of David Stevenson. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Trish and family at this sad time. David worked as one of our Eucharistic Ministers as part of his Parish Ministry taking Holy Communion to the sick and housebound in their homes and at Kings Mill Hospital. He will be sadly missed by us all.

At the time of publication his Requiem Mass has not been announced. May he rest in peace.
